El Questro Wilderness Park

Emma Gorge Resort

Emma Gorge Waterfall+

Swimming Pool+

Dining on the Deck+

Hidden within the fiery red of El Questro's Cockburn Ranges, lies the spectacular Emma Gorge Resort. Conveniently located close to some of El Questro's major attractions only two kilometres off the Gibb River Road, and one hour from Kununurra.

Nestled between palms and pandanus, gravel paths link the Tented Cabins, restaurant, bar, reception and gorge.

Emma Gorge Resort is a great place for an outback adventure with the whole family. A swimming pool and lounge area shaded by native trees and landscaped gardens lies on the banks of Emma Gorge Creek. Take a short stroll from the base of the gorge past butterfly-filled trees and vines to a huge turquoise waterhole, perfect for swimming, and the ideal setting for a relaxing massage under the permanent droplet waterfalls.

The food is spectacular too. Enjoy tropical fruits for breakfast, barbecued fish and Kimberley beef for lunch and dinner, all served in the open air of the restaurants' spacious verandahs. The Restaurant is the perfect place for an family meal, with an al a carte childrens menu available.

Emma Gorge Resort's Tented Cabins allow you to stay in comfort and style, while still remaining close to nature, in complete harmony with the surrounding landscape.

The raised roofs of the Tented Cabins allow the tropical sounds and scents to filter through, as you drift off to sleep. Beds are fitted with linen and pillows, while fans help make warmer nights more comfortable. All Tented Cabins have their own private ensuite facilities.

With a fully licensed bar, well-stocked shop and laundry facilities, Emma Gorge Resort is an ideal place to stay and explore El Questro and the captivating Kimberley beyond.

Please note: Emma Gorge Resort is closed from 19 October 2009 and will reopen 1 April 2010.
